

Windowmaker Option

Standard Products

Overview: What is it about?

This option allows you to set up doors/windows designs and dimensions as standard products. These standard products will then be available for frequent use or to be used as template and customized as needed.

The program allows you to store multiple designs, including non-rectangular and bays, as standard products.

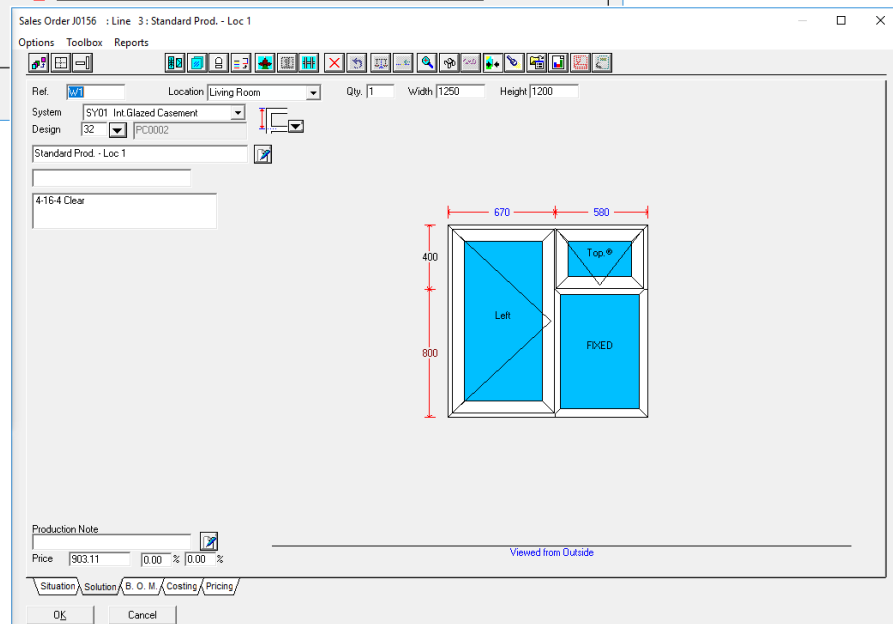

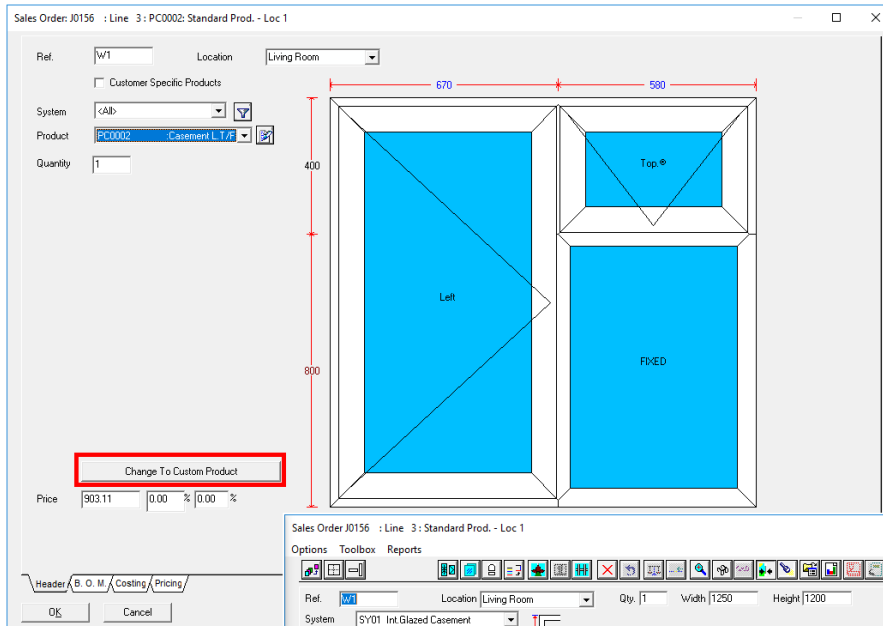

Standard Products

File Edit View Tools Help

Drag a column header here to group by that column

ID	Image	Product No.	Description	Long Description	Type	Cost	Price
200001		00001	Cmnt L.R	Casement L.R	Window	1165...	15147...
200002		00002	2T XIX_	2T XIX_	Window	1108...	14415...
200003		00003	F//_XIX	F//_XIX	Window	1231...	16012...
200004		00004	Door L In	Door L In	Door	1054...	13714...
200005		00005	Cmnt L.T/F	Casement L.T/F	Window	1259...	16373...

Windowmaker Option Standard Products

Benefits and Features: Why use this option?

- ▲ Get rid of the monotony at order entry level
 - Select the ready design from the standard product
 - Make edits to the specifications (dimensions, design, accessories) as required
- ▲ Speed up the order entry process
 - Easily use filter for a list of standard products
 - Pick a design and make changes (if required) with a few clicks
- ▲ Reduce the chances of error
 - Select a ready design without having to manually enter the details

Minimum Requirements

Windowmaker Express or higher